

MLK Avenue Redevelopment Corporation
2014 Financial Education Program

The Alabama Power Foundation & PNC Bank have joined forces to enhance the suite of services the MLK Avenue Redevelopment Corporation (MLKARC) offers to area Low-Moderate Income (LMI) persons via its Financial Education Program. The program is designed to assist LMI persons seeking to improve their credit, housing options and finances.

The 2014 class calendar is as follows:

“Financial Recovery” How to recover financially and rebuild your credit after a financial-setback.

Tuesday January 21, 6pm-8pm

“To Your Credit & Charge It Right” How your credit history will affect your credit future & how to make a credit card work for you.

Tuesday February 18, 6pm-8pm

“Loan to Own & Your Own Home” Know what you’re borrowing before you buy & what homeownership is all about.

Tuesday March 18, 6pm-8pm

“Borrowing Basics & Keep It Safe” An introduction to credit & your rights as a consumer.

Tuesday May 20, 6pm-8pm

“Money Matters” How to keep track of your money.

Tuesday June 17, 6pm-8pm

“Pay Yourself First” Why you should save, save & save!

Tuesday July 15, 6pm-8pm

“Financial Recovery” How to recover financially and rebuild your credit after a financial-setback.

Tuesday August 19, 6pm-8pm

“To Your Credit & Charge It Right” How your credit history will affect your credit future & how to make a credit card work for you.

Tuesday September 16, 6pm-8pm

“Loan to Own & Your Own Home” Know what you’re borrowing before you buy & what homeownership is all about.

Tuesday October 21, 6pm-8pm

To register for the free classes, call our office at 251.432.3073.

All classes will be held in the Delchamps Theater on the Main Campus of Bishop State Community College located at 351 N. Broad Street.

MLKARC’s Financial Education Program serves Low-Moderate Income Mobilians.

The FDIC’s Money Smart for Adults curriculum presented is by

A SOUTHERN COMPANY

Alabama Power Foundation Inc.

